New Jersey Insurance Coverage Litigation - 2015 A Practitioner's Guide

Written by: Frank J. DeAngelis, Esq. and William D. Wilson, Esq.

This book provides a broad overview of New Jersey insurance coverage litigation involving the enforcement and interpretation of insurance policies. Whether you are handling your first insurance case, are a seasoned insurance law practitioner, or simply need to address insurance issues as part of your business, this book will provide an answer to most of the questions you may have about New Jersey Insurance law.

The book covers everything from a basic overview of general insurance principles, to in-depth discussions of complex insurance and reinsurance issues, including coverage for losses resulting from catastrophic events, Carter-Wallace allocation issues arising out of environmental and toxic tort claims, and bad-faith and extra contractual damages.

The authors, who have a combined total of more than 40 years of experience litigating insurance cases in New Jersey provide insight into both first-party property and third-party liability coverage issues, as well as reinsurance issues.
